1. Look at the feedback. Decide if it’s constructive (+) or not (-).

Next time please try to concentrate on the tasks more.
You must stop having fun with your employees!
You are very angry and nervous!
The design is awful!
Let's take some time to think about the issue.
I don't like the project!
Your level of JS is very low.

2. Match constructive and non-constructive (bad) feedback (same info, different style).

1. You have a very low level of JS.	a. If I were you I would take some time to calm down and relax
2. I don't like the project!	b. I would be more satisfied on a project with more challenging technologies
3. The design is awful!!!	c. I think you should work on your JS skill improvement
4. Let's take some time to think about the issue.	d. I don't want to discuss it with you now
5. You are angry and nervous!!!	e. The design is fine but I would change.....
6. Next time please try to concentrate on tasks more.	f. You must stop having fun with your employees and start to do some tasks

1-
2-
3-
4-
5-
6-

Grammar note!
Modal verbs
The most popular modal verbs are:

can may could should would will must

1) I can swim (I know how to swim).
I can meet you at 5 (I have the ability to do that).

2) May I join you? (asking permission)

3) I could sing when I was a kid (could - past from can)
Could you help me? (asking for help)

4) You should practice more often. (Advice)

5) Would you join me? (Request)

I would like to ask you something (desire)
More polite way to say “I want”

6) You must not drive drunk (Rule, law)

How to use modal verbs (with examples)

Modal verbs always come directly before the main verb (except for questions).
With modal verbs, use the infinitive form of the main verb without “to”.

You should work
You could run.

3. Underline modal verbs in the sentences below.

1. If I were you I would take some time to calm down and relax.
2. I would be more satisfied on a project with more challenging technologies.

3. I think you should work on your JS skill improvement.
4. The design is fine but I would change.....
5. You must stop having fun with your employees and start to do some tasks.

4. Find and correct the mistakes

1. I guess you should to improve your English
2. I would like receive these docs
3. Could you sends me this file ASAP please?
4. If I was you I will change this approach.
5. I would to be more satisfied on a project with more challenging technologies
6. I think you would work on your JS skill improvement

5. Read the dialogues. Put underlined phrases into the correct column of the table.

A)

Tom: Can I have a word with you?

Megan: Sure, what is it?

T: Well, I reviewed your design for the website and I think it needs some improvement. For instance, the logo was too small and the pictures were not cut properly.
M: Oh, I see. Thanks for letting me know.
T: No problem, I think you should pay more attention to details and use some additional tools for picture editing.

M: Yes, that makes sense.
T: I could send you some useful links and tools to help with the design
M: Yes, that would be great! I really appreciate it.

B)

Kevin: Hi John, I am glad you found the time to meet with me. There's an important issue I would like to discuss with you.

John: Sure, what's that?

Kevin: Actually, I noticed that recently you have been missing daily meetings a lot. For instance, on Monday we discussed a project design and we could really use your ideas and knowledge. But since you were not there the meeting was not too productive.

John: I am sorry to hear that, I appreciate you letting me know. The thing is, lately I started to have problems with my sleep, maybe because of stress, so it is difficult for me to wake up in the morning but I will try to improve.

Kevin: Thanks for being honest with me, yes, sleep is important for productive work. Please let me know if there's anything I could do to help. Maybe we could start our meeting 15 minutes later?

John: That would be great, I really appreciate it!

Prepare for the feedback.	The specific situation that happened.	An impact that situation had.	The reaction of the person receiving the feedback.	Offer to help, and advice.

6. Complete the sentences with missing words. Repeat the sentences 2 times each.

1. Can I have a ..... with you?
2. Oh, I see. Thanks for..... me know.
3. Yes, that would be great! I really ..... it.
4. I am glad you found the time to.... with me.
5. I am sorry to .....that.
6. Please let me know if there's anything I .....do to help.

7. Watch the video about the Feedback sandwich

What is Feedback Sandwich | Explained in 2 min

8. Match the feedback sandwich with the problem.

1) Your colleague made an ugly design
2) Your teammate is not productive at work
3) Your colleague is always late to the meetings

a) You have been working with us for a long time and we really appreciate that. But lately, we noticed that your production is not the same as before. Please let us know if we could help you bring it back or maybe you need some help with tasks.

b) Daniel, your works are really inspiring and modern but we feel that the last design you created needs a bit of improvement. Maybe we could sit together and think of some fresh ideas.

c) Hi. Jack, we know that you are a responsible worker who always meets the deadline, but recently there were several times you came late for the meeting and we could not start without you. Please let us know if you have any trouble connecting to the meeting or meeting time is not suitable for you so we work things out.

9. Write sandwich feedback to your college who:

1) Always talks badly with junior employees.

2) Brings his noisy kid to the office.

3) Leaves dirty coffee cups on his table.