Hiring Process

1. What happens after you Create a CV?

What stages shall you go through after sending a CV to receive an offer?
Write down the steps from sending your CV to getting an offer.

2. Change underlined words in the sentences with the words from the box.

top-notch	networking	applied	hands-on	heavily	peers

1. I have finished creating an excellent CV.
2. I have sent my CV to Google.
3. She has a practical experience with React.
4. You are very interested in Frontend development.
5. I have just given feedback to my colleagues.
6. He has found a new job thanks to his friends and mates.

3. Match words from 2 columns to make phrases.

1.	Phone	a) task
2.	Culture	b) an offer
3.	Test	c) fit interview
4.	Receive	d) a candidate
5.	Reject	e) screening

1-
2-
3-

4-
5-

4. Read the text and answer the questions below.

Hi! I am Mary, a QA Engineer with 4 years of experience.

I have worked at an E-globe company since 2020 but at the moment I am looking for a new role. I want a new challenge and would be glad to have some automation in my new place.

Last week I found this job opening at the TTT company. I've sent my CV but I still have not received any feedback.

I hope they will invite me to the interview. I have also applied for 2 more jobs so wish me good luck!!!

Answer the questions.

1. Where does Mary work at the moment?
2. Is she looking for a new job?
3. Has she received feedback from the TTT company?
4. Has she applied for any other jobs?
5. What new challenge is she looking for at her new job?

Grammar Note
Present Perfect!!!

The present perfect is formed from the present tense of the verb have/has and the past participle of a verb. (worked, sent. written)

We use the present perfect:

for something that started in the past and continues in the present:

I have worked here since 2020

when we are talking about our experience up to the present:

I've seen that film before.

I have used AWS on some projects.
Signal words!

Recently
Just
Only just
So far
ever (questions)
yet (questions and negative sentences)
already

I have just sent this letter

5. a) Complete the table with the missing sentences.

+	-	?
I've sent my CV	I have not sent my CV	Have I sent my CV?
	She hasn't received feedback.
		Has he applied for this position?
They've opened a QA position.
	I have not interviewed him yet.
I have written a cover letter.
	He hasn't reviewed the CVs yet.
		Has she updated her CV?
	You haven't reviewed job posts.

5. b) Complete the questions.

1. [……] you completed any major projects recently?
2. [……..] your company hired any new employees this year?
3. [……..] you met with any important clients lately?
4. [……..] your colleagues given you any feedback about your work recently?
5. [……..] your colleague ever received any awards or bonuses for his/her work?

Answer these questions.

5. c) Open the brackets to complete sentences. All sentences are in Present Perfect.

Ex. Our company has expanded into several new markets this year.

a. Our company [to expand] into several new markets this year.

b. The sales team [to meet] with several potential clients this week.

c. I [to complete] all of the reports that were due this month.

d. The CEO [to announce] a new strategic plan for the company.

e. The marketing department [to develop] a new campaign to promote our products.

f. They [to discuss] a new project in that meeting.

6. Look at Mary's checklist of things she has to do. Write down things she has or has not done. Use Present Perfect.

Update my CV.	✓
Review job openings.	✓
Apply for the most interesting job.	✓
Repeat QA theory.
Practice interview questions.
Take a new professional picture for my Linkedin profile.

Change my Linkedin status to “Open for work”.	✓
Ask friends for job recommendations.
Prepare for the phone screening.

ex. 1. Mary has prepared a CV.

7. Which hiring steps do you think Google has? Is the hiring process at Google the same or different from other companies?

Match the word/phrase with its meaning.

1. Googler	a) To understand something by piecing together hints or other bits of information.
2. to connect the dots	b) a set of characteristics of what Google wants in an employee.
3. brainteaser question	c) uncertainty
4. Googleyness	d) A full-time Google corporation employee.
5. ambiguity	e) a question, problem, or puzzle that is difficult to answ solve but is not serious or important.
6. unbiased review.	f) fair and not likely to support one particular person or group involved in something.

1-
2-
3-
4-
5-
6-

8. How do you think the words in the left column are connected to the hiring process at Google?

1. a Googler -
2. to connect the dots -
3. a brainteaser question
4. Googleyness
5. an ambiguity
6. an unbiased review

9. Watch the video. How many stages of hiring does Google have?

How We Hire at Google

10. Watch the video again. What makes a successful candidate for Google? Makes some notes.

Successful Google candidate is: